The mother who came back from the dead - ten minutes after her life support machine was turned OFF

'A mother of two has stunned doctors by apparently coming back from the dead. Velma Thomas's heart stopped beating three times and she was clinically brain dead for 17 hours. Her son had left the hospital to make funeral arrangements, having been told she would not survive. But ten minutes after her life support system was shut down and doctors were preparing to take her organs for donation, the 59-year-old woke up.'

'Death' is an illusion and illusions can be changed.
