

Not so wild

Friday, 13 June 2008

Not so wild

'Several years ago this woman found a sick, malnourished lion cub in the jungle. She took the cub home and fed him and brought him up until he was too big to keep anymore. Then she made arrangements With a zoo in Colombia to take the lion. This is what happened when she went to visit him at the zoo for the first time.'

Click here to watch ...