Background to the Henry Jackson Society - watch this organisation very closely indeed

We have been highlighting this group and its personnel both sides of the Atlantic since some of them supported David Davis in his 'anti-Big Brother' By-Election. The Henry Jackson Society is the gathering force behind the Conservative Party of David Cameron who is highly likely to be the next British Prime Minister and it includes many of the key 'neocons' behind the invasion of Iraq and the 'war on terror' that has been used to justify the very Big Brother laws that Davis says he opposes.
