

People "Paid To Protest"

Monday, 10 June 2002

WELL, WELL, WELL. CAN ANYONE TELL US MORE?
PEOPLE "PAID TO PROTEST"

AGAINST DAVID ICKE IN CANADA.

We have just had information from a lady who attended David Icke's lecture at the Httel Renaissance du Parc in Montreal, Canada, last Summer. There were protests outside and strenuous efforts were made to stop the event going ahead - as there always are in Canada.

Indeed the man most prominent in the campaign to stop David Icke speaking in public, Richard Warman, was in the audience that day.

During his talk David was twice handed a note on the stage warning him to be ready to leave the building at a moment's notice because of the trouble outside. But he said he would only be leaving when he had finished the talk and even then it would be through the front entrance where the protesters were. And that is what he did.

Now, however, those "protests" can be seen in a rather different light.

A lady who was at the event says that during the protests against David outside the hotel she went to speak with "at least ten young people with red, pink, and orange hair, distributing flyers saying there was someone who was anti-semitic at the hotel".

The lady goes on:

"I went out during your meeting and I asked a boy : 'Do you know David Icke? Why are you doing that?' He answered me: 'We are paid $20 an hour to do this. We really don't mind who he is.'" quot;Of course I asked who paid them. They just said they had to go down town and there was a man who gives them a lot of flyers to put on the cars around the hotel. They were paid every time they came back."

CAN ANYONE TELL US ANY MORE ABOUT THIS?
WE WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR HELP IN CIRCULATING

THIS STORY AS WIDELY AS POSSIBLE IN CANADA.

THANK-YOU.
