Pupils Collapse at School

'Another scene of hysteria was experienced at the prayer meeting held at the Windsor Secondary School in Ladysmith yesterday. The prayer gathering came as a result of Thursday's panic when about 90 pupils from the school had to be rushed to the Ladysmith Provincial Hospital after some began experiencing dizzy spells, fainting, breathing difficulties, convulsions and foaming at the mouth.

Local religious leaders were on the scene yesterday to cast out what they say were demons after some of the pupils claimed they saw huge serpents.'
