ONE LAW FOR ONE ...

... PROPAGANDA AGAINST THE OTHER ...

By David Icke
www.davidicke.com/headlines

I was watching CNN the other night and a report on the foreign policy 'crisis' faced by the Bush-puppet administration. They listed all the trouble-spots - Israel-Gaza, Israel-Lebanon, North Korea, Iraq, Afghanistan, Iran, etc. - and claimed that rarely had a U.S. government faced so many major problems around the world.

Well, it depends on what you mean by 'problems'.

We are back to my old friend 'coordinates' here. If you don't have the right coordinates you don't have perspective. If you believe that the goal of American 'foreign policy' is to bring peace and freedom to the world - if that is your coordinate - then it does indeed seem like the United States is faced with enormous challenges.

But if you know that the U.S. government is merely a tool of a global secret society network - the Illuminati - and the idea is to create as much war and suffering as possible to destroy peace and freedom, you will understand that the chaos and conflict is anything but a 'problem'. Quite the opposite, it's all going according to plan.

Without the coordinates - knowledge of the Illuminati agenda and the techniques used to advance it - people have no chance of understanding world events

So let us go through some key coordinates here:

- 1.) The Illuminati use the technique I have dubbed problem-reaction-solution to 'justify' actions that would otherwise be widely opposed. For instance, without the lie about 'weapons of mass destruction' (an invented problem), they would never have been able to sell the 'solution' - the invasion of Iraq.
- 2.) The Illuminati want to seize control of the planet and crucial to that is to control the Middle and Near Eastern oil fields - Iraq, Iran, Saudi Arabia and so on, plus the massive oil and gas reserves around the Caspian Sea.
- 3.) To do the above they need excuses to invade those countries if they will not, like Libya, come quietly with their hands up.
- 4.) Israel is an Illuminati-created and controlled state through its manufactured political movement called 'Zionism', which is not the same as Judaism nor being Jewish. Large numbers of Jewish people oppose Zionism (see below), which is a political claim for a Jewish homeland in Israel.
- 5.) The state of Israel was bombed and terrorised into existence by invaders coordinated and manipulated by the Illuminati House of Rothschild. The incumbent population, the Palestinians, were removed from power in their own country and forced into little more than slavery by their invading masters.
- 6.) The Illuminati want to bring the United States and allies into a war with China to create a massive global problem in need of a global solution - the creation of a world government and world army to stop it ever happening again (hence the focus on China's associate state, North Korea).
- 7.) Chaos = control; Harmony = freedom.
- 8.) The goal is for a planet controlled by a world government and army that would impose its will on a micro-chipped, constantly watched and controlled population, described brilliantly by George Orwell in his book, 1984.

Now we can look again at current events and see foreign policy 'problems' in a different light to the brain-dead at CNN.

I have highlighted in detail in my books the so-called neo-con organization, the Project for the New American Century (PNAC), and the plan for global conquest that it produced in September 2000 called Rebuilding America's Defenses: Strategies, Forces, And Resources For A New Century. This document called for:

- U.S. military control of the Gulf region whether or not Saddam Hussein is in power: 'While the unresolved conflict with Iraq provides the immediate justification, the need for a substantial American force presence in the Gulf transcends the issue of the regime of Saddam Hussein.'
- The U.S. to 'fight and decisively win multiple, simultaneous major theatre wars' as a 'core mission'.
- U.S. forces to be 'the cavalry on the new American frontier'.
- Action to discourage advanced industrial nations from challenging U.S. leadership or aspiring to a larger regional or global role.
- Permanent U.S. bases in Saudi Arabia and Kuwait.
- Increased military pressure on China: 'It is time to increase the presence of American forces in South East Asia' which will lead to 'American and allied power providing the spur to the process of democratisation in China'.
- The 'creation of "U.S. Space Forces", to dominate space, and the total control of cyberspace to prevent "enemies" using the Internet against the U.S.'.
- 'New methods of attack - electronic, "non-lethal", biological. These, it says, will be more widely available and combat is likely to take place in new dimensions, in space, cyberspace, and perhaps the world of microbes ... advanced forms of biological warfare that can "target" specific genotypes may transform biological warfare from the realm of terror to a politically useful tool.'
- The development of a 'world-wide command-and-control system' to contain the 'dangerous' regimes of North Korea, Libya, Syria, and Iran.
The document highlighted the need for a 'New Pearl Harbor' without which the 'process of transformation' was likely to be 'a long one'. 9/11 came one year to the month after this document was published and nine months after those behind it came to power with Bush. Since then it has been used to justify the imposition of their agenda. Coincidence? Oh, please.

September 11th, the 'new Pearl Harbor' the neo-cons needed to implement their plans. Coincidence? No way.

Bush's State of the Union speech in January 2002, in which he dubbed Iraq, Iran and North Korea 'the Axis of Evil', was written by David Frum, one of the neo-cons closely connected with the Project for the New American Century and its interlocking organisations like the American Enterprise Institute. All of these groups are arms of the Illuminati.

David Frum ... coined the phrase 'Axis of Evil' - Iraq, Iran and North Korea - for his neo-con masters and the George Bush speech

The neo-con godfather is Leo Strauss, a German-born Jewish 'philosopher', who believed that people must be governed by a 'pious elite'. He must have missed the fact that they already were. This Internet article summaries the world according to Strauss and, therefore, the neo-cons:

'Strauss thought that the best way for ordinary human beings to raise themselves above the beasts is to be utterly devoted to their nation and willing to sacrifice their lives for it. He recommended a rabid nationalism and a militant society modelled on Sparta. He thought that this was the best hope for a nation to be secure against her external enemies as well as the internal threat of decadence, sloth, and pleasure. A policy of perpetual war against a threatening enemy is the best way to ward off political decay. And if the enemy cannot be found, then it must be invented.'

Leo Strauss

The Project for the New American Century personnel are highly significant to past and current events. It was established in 1997 by William Kristol and Robert Kagan. Kristol is editor of the Murdoch-owned Weekly Standard that campaigns for the neo-con agenda. He is a regular contributor to the Murdoch-owned Fox News, the most blatantly biased television channel anywhere in the 'Western' world. Robert Kagan is an American neoconservative 'scholar' and 'political commentator'. He graduated from Yale University in 1980, where he joined the infamous Illuminati Skull and Bones Society and he is a member of the Illuminati Council on Foreign Relations.

Kristol

Kagan

Both of these founders are Jewish with close ties to Israel and they are pushing an agenda for 'American' control of the Middle and Near East (and further) which is precisely what Israel wants to happen. Yet to highlight this crucial fact is to be called 'anti-Semitic' - the constant slur used by Illuminati fronts like the Anti Defamation League (ADL) to discredit those who point out the obvious unfairness and bias of this situation.

Well, bollocks to the ADL and anyone else in the same category. It is a fact and it needs saying to get some perspective on what is happening here.

And it goes further. These are some of the other members of the Project for the New American Century:

Abrams, Elliot: A member of the National Security Council and top advisor on the Middle East. As Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs under Reagan, he was responsible for covering up war crimes committed by the U.S.-backed Contras. He was charged in connection with the Iran-Contra affair and pleaded guilty to lesser charges. Abrams was later pardoned by father Bush. The British media reported that Abrams was behind the attempted Chavez coup in Venezuela.

Armitage, Richard

Former Deputy Secretary of State and former board member of CACI, the private military contractor whose employees were responsible for torturing prisoners at Abu Ghraib prison. Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs during the Reagan Administration and Deputy Secretary of State to Colin Powell at the time of the Iraq invasion.

Bernstein, Robert L.: Professor at the National Defense University (a government facility). Worked at the Naval War College (government facility), and in the Defense Department.

Bolton, John R.

Senior Vice President of the American Enterprise Institute. Major player at the Pentagon at the time of 9/11 and the invasion of Iraq and now U.S. ambassador to the United Nations calling for action against neo-con target countries, like Iran.

Boschwitz, Rudy: Presidential appointee to the Holocaust Memorial Council. One of the top fund-raisers for boy Bush in 2000.

Bush, Jeb

Governor of Florida who banned convicted felons from voting in the 2000 presidential election, using an extremely inaccurate system to remove voting rights and allowed ineligible absentee ballots to be counted. The vote was rigged, in other words, to get his brother 'elected'.

Carlucci, Frank: Chairman of the father Bush Carlyle Group at the time of 9/11. He was Secretary of Defense during the Reagan administration, Deputy Director in the CIA and CIA agent and was accused of plotting the assassination of two African leaders.

Cheney, Dick

Secretary of Defense for father Bush and now Vice President to his son. Cheney was behind the appointments of Donald Rumsfeld, Paul Wolfowitz, John Bolton, and Elliot Abrams to government. All are PNAC members. His wife Lynne is a senior fellow with the neo-con American Enterprise Institute and daughter Elizabeth became Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near East Affairs. He was Halliburton CEO from 1995 to 2000, the company that has received billions in Iraq contracts not tendered to other companies.

Cohen, Eliot A.: Professor at Johns Hopkins University, member of the Council on Foreign Relations and formerly worked for Rumsfeld.

Khalilzad, Zalmay

Ambassador to Afghanistan and now Iraq. Accused by candidates in the Afghan elections of arranging President Hamid Karzai's victory. Worked for Paul Wolfowitz at the State Department from 1984 to 1985. Advisor to oil giant Unocal for their proposed gas pipeline project through Afghanistan.

Libby, I. Lewis: Assistant to the President and Chief of Staff to the Vice President.

Worked for Paul Wolfowitz at the State Department and the Pentagon. Now under investigation for obstruction of justice.

Perle, Richard N.

Pentagon Policy Advisor (resigned February 2004) and member of the Defense Policy Board. On the advisory board of the Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs (JINSA). Assistant Secretary of Defense under Reagan/Bush. FBI suspected Perle of spying for Israel in 1970 but he was not prosecuted. Extremely close to former Israel Prime Minister, Benjamin Netanyahu, for whom he worked as an 'advisor'.

Rumsfeld, Donald

Secretary of Defense and a key player in the 'War on Terror', the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq, and the targeting of other nations. He was on the board of the European engineering giant, ABB, when it sold nuclear technology to North Korea and visited Saddam Hussein in Baghdad in 1983 to arrange for chemical and biological weapons shipments from the U.S. to Iraq.

Weinberger, Caspar W.: Secretary of Defense under Reagan. Indicted on felony charges for his role in supplying missiles to Iran, but pardoned by President Bush Sr, who was also involved!

Wolfowitz, Paul

Deputy Secretary of Defense at time of 9/11 and the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq. He was the real power in the Pentagon, not Rumsfeld. Now head of the World Bank.

Zakheim, Dov S.

Member of the advisory board for the American Jewish Committee, member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and Adjunct Scholar for the [Illuminati] Heritage Foundation. He was Under Secretary and Chief Financial Officer for the Department of Defense until 2004.

Zoellick, Robert B.: U.S. Trade Representative and member of President's Cabinet. Under Secretary of State for Economic and Agricultural Affairs, then White House Deputy Chief of Staff in the Bush Sr. administration.

All of the above are either Jewish with fundamental ties to Israel or vehement supporters of Israel, often through membership of the Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs (JINSA). This calls itself a 'non-partisan' organisation, which is a sick joke after even a cursory glance at its website - <http://www.jinsa.org/home/home.html>.

For more PNAC names, see http://www.reasoned.org/e_PNAC2.htm, but the same theme applies.

So, in summary: The neo-con groups like the Project for the New American Century and the American Enterprise Institute are awash - utterly dominated - by supporters of Israel and they have orchestrated a U.S. government policy of invasion and threats to countries in the Middle and Near East that suits the agenda of Israel.

Can you imagine what would be said - and done - if it was found that a U.S. administration controlled by fundamentalist supporters of Islamic countries had orchestrated an American invasion of Israel??

But because it is Israel doing the manipulating - silence. Don't speak out and state the clear facts or you will be called an 'anti-Semite'. Well, they can call me what they like, I don't give a shit, because unless these issues are faced these sick people will set the world ablaze.

Now perhaps we can understand why, when an atrocity is committed against Israel, the media calls it Islamic terrorism, but when staggering numbers of Palestinian or other Arab civilians are killed it is reported as Israel 'defending itself from' or 'retaliating to' terrorism. Why? Because the mainstream media is controlled by the same forces - like Murdoch - and so gives the neo-con line.

What chance do the Palestinian people have of fairness and justice when the major governments of the world and the major media sources are dictated to by the very force that is dropping bombs on them and killing their children? What chance have they ever had since their country was invaded and their nation turned into slaves?

None.

And it is about time someone said so without fearing the consequences in slurs and attacks from the purveyors of hate like the ADL.

I ask people to put themselves in the position of the Palestinians for a moment. They had their country stolen from them by force and terrorism soon after the Second World War and they have been subjected ever since to grotesque and horrific suppression, constant violence and domination. The Israeli government and military can do virtually whatever they like to them while the pathetic 'World Community' looks the other way.

The first prime minister of Israel, David Ben-Gurion, summed up their aims in 1937 when he said: 'We must expel Arabs and take their places.' Imagine if another people invaded your land and did this to you, refusing even to acknowledge the injustice. What would we do?

The Palestinians believe they are without hope and they feel understandable fury at what is happening to their land, their homes, their families and themselves. Why wouldn't they? And, given the scale of provocation, it is a wonder that their own violent response comes only from a small minority, not the vast majority of decent and intelligent Palestinian and Arabic people who just want peace and justice.

It is an old, old truth. Ignore injustice for long enough and violence will surely follow. The way to stop violence is to remove the injustice, not respond with even greater violence.

Israel and the United States government - of both parties - are one and the same, controlled by the Illuminati network, and that is why Israel can basically do what it likes while the Palestinians are condemned at every turn.

So when we look at the events of this week they seem less foreign policy 'problems' and more foreign policy goals. The Project for the New American Century, just one of the voice pieces for the agenda of racist hatred, called in 2000 for the conquest of Iraq, Iran, North Korea, Syria and so on.

With the nightmare unfolding by the day in Iraq, the public in America and Britain have no stomach for invading anyone else. Bush and Blair have also had their credibility shot by the blatant lies they told to justify the Iraq invasion. Thus, if the conquest agenda is to roll on in the Middle and Near East, another trigger is necessary to keep it moving.

Enter Israel, stage right and left, with the invasions of the Gaza Strip and Lebanon and the blame pointed at both Syria and Iran for supporting those who kidnapped three soldiers - acts which have unleashed Israeli firepower (paid for by U.S. 'aid') on civilian populations.

It was all planned long before any soldiers were taken hostage.

A family of ten, including eight children, died in this Israeli air strike in Lebanon in retaliation for two soldiers being kidnapped (but not by the family of ten, including eight children).

And have you noticed something? The Illuminati target the Palestinians, Lebanon, Syria, Iran and North Korea and events happen at just the right time to support the agenda. Soldiers are kidnapped that lead to the invasion of Gaza and Lebanon, with blame for the kidnaps handed to Syria and Iran; an Iran 'election' is 'won' by a man who then says all the right things for the neo-con propaganda to exploit; and North Korea starts launching missiles.

This story, and the global conspiracy, is far, far bigger than almost anyone imagines.

Zionism In Their Own Words

'If I knew that it was possible to save all the children of Germany by transporting them to England, and only half by transferring them to the Land of Israel, I would choose the latter, for before us lies not only the numbers of these children but the historical reckoning of the people of Israel.'

-- David Ben-Gurion (Quoted on pp 855-56 in Shabtai Teveth's Ben-Gurion in a slightly different translation).

'This country exists as the fulfillment of a promise made by God Himself. It would be ridiculous to ask it to account for its legitimacy.'

-- Golda Meir, Le Monde, 15 October 1971

'We walked outside, Ben-Gurion accompanying us. Allon repeated his question, What is to be done with the Palestinian population?' Ben-Gurion waved his hand in a gesture which said 'Drive them out!'

-- Yitzhak Rabin, leaked censored version of Rabin memoirs, published in the New York Times, 23 October 1979.

'[The Palestinians] are beasts walking on two legs.'

-- Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin, speech to the Knesset, quoted in Amnon Kapeliouk, "Begin and the 'Beasts,'" New Statesman, June 25, 1982.

'(The Palestinians) would be crushed like grasshoppers ... heads smashed against the boulders and walls.'

-- Israeli Prime Minister (at the time) Yitzhak Shamir in a speech to Jewish settlers, New York Times April 1, 1988

'If we thought that instead of 200 Palestinian fatalities, 2,000 dead would put an end to the fighting at a stroke, we would use much more force....'

-- Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak, quoted in Associated Press, November 16, 2000.

'It is the duty of Israeli leaders to explain to public opinion, clearly and courageously, a certain number of facts that are forgotten with time. The first of these is that there is no Zionism, colonialization, or Jewish State without the eviction of the Arabs and the expropriation of their lands.'

-- Ariel Sharon, Israeli Foreign Minister, addressing a meeting of militants from the extreme right-wing Tsomet Party, Agence France Presse, November 15, 1998.

'Everybody has to move, run and grab as many (Palestinian) hilltops as they can to enlarge the (Jewish) settlements because everything we take now will stay ours...Everything we don't grab will go to them.'

-- Ariel Sharon, Israeli Foreign Minister, addressing a meeting of the Tsomet Party, Agence France Presse, Nov. 15, 1998.

'Israel may have the right to put others on trial, but certainly no one has the right to put the Jewish people and the State of Israel on trial.'

-- Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon, 25 March, 2001 quoted in BBC News Online

'Israel planned deliberate provocation of Hamas and Hezbollah'

'This entire crisis has all the hallmarks and is beginning to unravel as a carefully orchestrated ploy to create a casus belli for Israel to attack and occupy the Gaza, neutralise Hamas, the democratically elected government of the Palestinians to deprive the Palestinians of any power to resist reoccupation of the Gaza, possibly on a permanent basis, and, at the same time, to neutralise Hizbollah in pursuit of regime change in Lebanon.

Since the Israelis are now also making noises about Syrian and even Iranian involvement in the Hizbollah actions against Israel that has prompted Israel's attacks against Lebanon, there are indications that these noises are intended to foment US involvement in attacking Syria and Iran on Israels behalf.'

'Israel is imposing an air and sea blockade on Lebanon as part of a major offensive after two soldiers were seized by the militant group Hezbollah. Israeli warships have blocked Lebanese ports, and its international airport was closed after Israeli bombing. 'Palestinians have a legitimate right to defend themselves against this illegal occupation'

'It's lights out in the Gaza Strip and lights out in the moral consciousness of the Western and Arab world. The reason? One soldier, who lacked the ethical fiber to resist involvement in the illegal occupation of an indigenous people, was captured by those he was oppressing. It's like a rapist complaining when his victims get aggressive. Red flags have gone up throughout the West. This event is an "escalation," a "declaration of war," an "obscene act by terrorists." Is this capture ten thousands times less offensive and harmful than the ten thousand prisoners abducted by Israel? Would not the executing of four thousands Palestinians, the vast majority of them civilians, constitute a "crime against humanity?"

'The State of Israel controls every gate into the Gaza Strip. One such gate called Rafah connects the tiny land with the Egyptian Sinai. But to get there you must cross a kilometer wide Israeli zone, and if you're lucky enough to be allowed passage to Gaza it is with Israel's permission; your passport shows you have entered Israel, not Palestine. Only yesterday two unnamed swimmers tried to bypass this checkpoint and were shot in the water by the crew of an Israeli Navy ship.

But an even more strange right of passage is practiced inside America's churches. For when you enter what is referred to generically as an evangelical church you are probably about to partake in a Zionist controlled religion as distant from traditional Christianity as is Pharisaism.'

SECRETS OF THE MATRIX -

THE LATEST DVD/VIDEO BY DAVID ICKE

Since 1990 David Icke has been on an amazing journey of self and collective discovery to establish the real power behind apparently 'random' world events like 9/11 and the 'war on terrorism'. Here he reveals that a network of interbreeding bloodlines manipulating through their web of interconnecting secret societies have been pursuing an agenda for thousands of years to impose a global centralised fascist state with total control and surveillance of the population.

Over six hours with hundreds of illustrations, David Icke reveals the illusion that is life in this 'physical' reality. How is this 'world' - a provable illusion - just a lucid dream? How do we create it and how can we change the dream to one that we would like to experience?

THE LATEST FROM THE TWILIGHT ZONE

'60s Mushroom Drug Used In Experiment

People who took an illegal drug made from mushrooms reported profound mystical experiences that led to behavior changes lasting for weeks -- all part of an experiment that recalls the psychedelic '60s. Many of the 36 volunteers rated their reaction to a single dose of the drug, called psilocybin, as one of the most meaningful or spiritually significant experiences of their lives. Some compared it to the birth of a child or the death of a parent.

Such comments "just seemed unbelievable," said Roland Griffiths of the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore, the study's lead author. But don't try this at home, he warned. "Absolutely don't." Almost a third of the research participants found the drug experience frightening even in the very controlled setting. That suggests people experimenting with the illicit drug on their own could be harmed, Griffiths said.

Viewed by some as a landmark, the study is one of the few rigorous looks in the past 40 years at a hallucinogen's effects. The researchers suggest the drug someday may help drug addicts kick their habit or aid terminally ill patients struggling with anxiety and depression. It may also provide a way to study what happens in the brain during intense spiritual experiences, the scientists said. Funded in part by the federal government, the research was published online Tuesday by the journal Psychopharmacology. Psilocybin has been used for centuries in religious practices, and its ability to produce a mystical experience is no surprise. But the new work demonstrates it more clearly than before, Griffiths said.

Even two months after taking the drug, pronounced SILL-oh-SY-bin, most of the volunteers said the experience had changed them in beneficial ways, such as making them more compassionate, loving, optimistic and patient. Family members and friends said they noticed a difference, too. Charles Schuster, a professor of psychiatry and behavioral neuroscience at Wayne State University and a former director of the National Institute on Drug Abuse, called the work a landmark.

"I believe this is one of the most rigorously well-controlled studies ever done" to evaluate psilocybin or similar substances for their potential to increase self-awareness and a sense of spirituality, he said. He did not participate in the research. Psilocybin, like LSD or mescaline, is one of a class of drugs called hallucinogens or psychedelics. While they have been studied by scientists in the past, research was largely shut down after widespread recreational abuse of the drugs during the 1960s, Griffiths said. Some work resumed in the 1990s.

"We've lost 40 years of (potential) research experience with this whole class of compounds," he said. Now, with modern-day scientific methods, "I think it's time to pick up this research field."

The study volunteers had an average age of 46, had never used hallucinogens, and participated to some degree in religious or spiritual activities like prayer, meditation, discussion groups or religious services. Each tried psilocybin during one visit to the lab and the stimulant methylphenidate (better known as Ritalin) on one or two other visits. Only six of the volunteers knew when they were getting psilocybin. Each visit lasted eight hours. The volunteers lay on a couch in a living-room-like setting, wearing an eye mask and listening to classical music. They were encouraged to focus their attention inward.

Psilocybin's effects lasted for up to six hours, Griffiths said. Twenty-two of the 36 volunteers reported having a "complete" mystical experience, compared to four of those getting methylphenidate.

That experience included such things as a sense of pure awareness and a merging with ultimate reality, a transcendence of time and space, a feeling of sacredness or awe, and deeply felt positive mood like joy, peace and love. People say "they can't possibly put it into words," Griffiths said.

Two months later, 24 of the participants filled out a questionnaire. Two-thirds called their reaction to psilocybin one of the five top most meaningful experiences of their lives. On another measure, one-third called it the most spiritually significant experience of their lives, with another 40 percent ranking it in the top five. About 80 percent said that because of the psilocybin experience, they still had a sense of well-being or life satisfaction that was raised either "moderately" or "very much."

'Dr. Kevin Barrett, U.W.-Madison lecturer who has received overwhelming public support along with a dash of vitriol for expressing his views about 9/11 on a radio program, has challenged Rep. Steve Nass to debate him on the subject. "It is time to stop the name-calling and threats, and get down to a serious, scholarly debate," Barrett said, adding "If Rep. Nass successfully refutes my arguments, I promise to withdraw them, and issue a public apology to Vice President Cheney and others I have named as 9/11 suspects."

Merchants of death in Iraq

'It could be called perhaps just another raid. Early in the morning on Sunday, June 18, US military helicopters landed near the home of Sinan Abdul-Ilah al-Mashadani in the al-Jughaihi district of Fallujah. Within two minutes the doors of his home were blasted open and "a strange looking group of people" stormed inside, according to Said Walid Ahmed, a 40-year-old teacher who lives in the neighborhood.

"This force is not totally unknown to us here in Fallujah," Ahmed, who witnessed the incident from a nearby house told Inter Press Service (IPS). "They are a special force of Americans that assassinates more people than it arrests."

Are Enron Bankers/Witnesses Being Murdered?

'With the latest revelation that a body discovered in North-east London is that of a banker intimately connected with the Enron fraud case, one has to begin to ask why are there so many "unexplained" deaths linked to this case? The BBC is reporting that London Police are treating the death of Neil Coulbeck, who worked for the Royal Bank of Scotland until 2004, as "unexplained". Coulbeck had been interviewed by the FBI as a potential witness. The fraud case centres on a NatWest transaction under which it sold off part of its Enron unit.'

Death by Video: Mexico's Election Fraud Is Coming Undone

'... neighbors of the office of the Federal Electoral Institute (IFE, in its Spanish initials) in Comalcalco, Tabasco, witnessed a crime against democracy. They didn't just stand there. They did something about it. And this one small example of the fighting spirit of the Mexican people explains why the historic presidential election fraud of July 2, 2006 will not stand.

Nine days after the fact, neither the IFE, nor President Vicente Fox, nor his National Action Party (PAN), nor their candidate Felipe CalderÃ³n, nor the Commercial Media at their service, have been able to reassert control over the juggernaut of facts, audio and video evidence, and public outrage that today tramples their anti-democratic gambit. The Fraud of 2006, and those who attempted it, are drowning under an authentically democratic tide. Take, for example, what just occurred in the Tabasco town of Comalcalco.'

Scholars for 9/11 Truth Under Attack

'The author of an article about the attack on the World Trade Center has found himself under attack for having published it in a new on-line publication, Journal of 9/11 Studies. He has now received a thinly-veiled threat against his children, who are cited by name, suggesting it would be a good idea if his article were to simply "go away".

Scholars for 9/11 Truth is a non-partisan society of experts and scholars committed to exposing falsehoods and revealing truths about the events of 9/11. The journal, which is archived at journalof911studies.com, is its latest attempt to create forums for discussion and debate about these important issues beyond its web site, which is archived at st911.org. The author, Reynolds Dixon, a writer and Professor of English, former lecturer and Fellow at Stanford University, has withdrawn from the society.'

The Inquisition ranks as probably the most heinous instrument of evangelism and forced repentance ever instituted by a religious institution. The Inquisitors terrorized the citizens of Europe for centuries. It ended about 1850 CE but was later reinstated by Pope Paul VI (1963-1978) who restored the Inquisition under a more benign name, the Congregation for the Doctrine of Faith. It was Pope John Paul II who appointed Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger to this office.'

'When Warren Buffett gave $31 billion to Bill Gates' Foundation last week, I assumed it would advance the New World Order. But when a reader showed me Gates' connection with the pagan anti-Semitic Lucis (formerly Lucifer) Trust, I sat up and took notice. Established by Alice Bailey in 1922, the Lucifer Publishing Company changed its name the following year for obvious reasons. Based at 120 Wall Street, the "Lucis Trust" is a vital part of the satanic cult that controls the Western world. It started the New Age Movement to induct society into their Luciferian mindset. Apparently, Lucis is the official publisher of the United Nations and manages its "Meditation Room."

Genocide Under the Radar Again in Darfur

'The unpleasant reality is that the much-vaunted ceasefire treaty has proven useless on the ground. Sudan has exploited

a loophole that allows its Janjaweed proxy militias, who are not a party to the peace agreement, to continue their reign of terror. Because Sudan has never backed away from its dishonest contention that the Janjaweed are independent from the government, it can still claim that it is not responsible for the Janjaweed's crimes.

By now, there is little denying that the government trains, arms, and otherwise colludes with the Janjaweed, but the lack of an enforcement mechanism means that the UN can do little to compel Sudan to do anything more than pay lip service to their obligation to curtail and disarm these murderous mobs.'

George Bush, The CIA, Mind Control & Child Abuse

For a decade David Icke has been exposing child abuse by some of the most famous people in the world. At first people laughed and dismissed it now ...

'On January 28, 2003, amid the furor of the impending war with Iraq the British press briefly reported on Operation Ore, the most thorough and comprehensive police investigation of crimes against children before being squashed by the Blair government. Besides implicating Rock guitarist Peter Dinklage of the Who, the report claimed that senior members of Tony Blair's government were being investigated for pedophilia and the "enjoyment" of child-sex pornography. With the investigation reaching to senior members of his Government, Blair declared a news blackout on the story.

Moreover, the British report was not the first such case reported. In fact, it followed on the heels of a report from Portugal. On November 27, 2002, the press reported a scandal of pedophile ring run from a state orphanage. The Guardian reported that the scandal threatened to engulf diplomats, media personalities and senior politicians. Photographs of senior government officials with young boys from Lisbon's Casa Pia orphanage were among the evidence. More shocking however, were the revelations that systematic sexual abuse of children at the home had allegedly been going on for more than 20 years and had been known to police and other authorities for most of that time.'

The primary focus of the ADL's ire has traditionally been European Americans, but recently it has changed its focus to include Arabs and Muslims, a result of the "War on Terrorism," and Israel's need to convince Americans and Europeans that Islam is their mortal enemy.'
