

U.S. using British airport to fly weapons to Israel destined for Lebanese civilians

Friday, 28 July 2006

U.S. using British airport to fly weapons to Israel destined for Lebanese civilians

'The White House has dismissed UK concerns about the use of Prestwick Airport, in Scotland, by US planes carrying bombs to Israel. "Apparently, the British foreign minister thinks the paperwork was not in order," said spokesman Tony Snow. "The Department of Defense does," he added. "We'll get it straightened out."

Read more ...