

First Trial Without Jury Approved

Friday, 19 June 2009

First Trial Without Jury Approved

'The Court of Appeal has ruled that a criminal trial can take place at Crown Court without a jury for the first time in England and Wales. The Lord Chief Justice, Lord Judge, made legal history by agreeing to allow the trial to be heard by a judge alone. It is the first time the power has been used since it came into force in 2007.'

Read more...