

Homeland Security Drone Patrolling NNY

Monday, 22 June 2009

Homeland Security Drone Patrolling NNY

'A Predator B Unmanned Aircraft System (UAS) has been temporarily based at Fort Drum since early June in an experiment by the U.S. Customs and Border Protection Office. The Department of Homeland Security is using the extensive restricted air space over Fort Drum to test whether the drone could be a good fit along this stretch of the northern border.'

Read more...