The Government did it

Dear David,

I attended your lecture yesterday in Connecticut. Thank you very much. Here is a copy of an e-mail I sent to everyone on my e-mail list which details my impressions of your show. I hope you enjoy it. Yours truly, Edward Safranski.

Hello Everyone,

I took a day off from work today and drove to Connecticut to hear a lecture given by David Icke (pronounced Ike). It was without a doubt the absolute best lecture I have ever heard, and I've heard lots of 'em from lotsa different people. He is a former British television newscaster and he has achieved a certain amount of notoriety by his books, meant to expose the workings of the Illuminati. His website is at www.davidicke.com

The lecture was from 9:00 am till 5:45 pm and was in three parts. The first part detailed the amazing amount of holes in the official version of the September 11 terrorist attacks. It was extremely similar to the video by Alex Jones entitled, 911-The Road To Tyranny, which is available from the www.infowars.com website. The government did the terrorist attacks, there cannot be even the slightest doubt of that for anyone who examines the evidence with an open mind. If anyone is offended by that statement, I'm sorry. Not sorry because you are offended, but sorry because you are so blind to reality that you cannot see the light of day. The government did it, the evidence is conclusive and overwhelming. If anyone wants to pretend otherwise, that is their prerogative, and they have my deepest sympathy for their pathetic cowardice. The government denials and fabrications are ludicrous to the point of being hilarious if it wasn't for the extremely serious nature of their crimes. After all, they murdered over 3,000 Americans and at least twice that many Afghan civilians, just in this one drama of the World Trade Center attack and the so-called retaliation. Of course in the last hundred years or so the various governments around the world, including our own, have murdered several hundred million of their own citizens, so why would they care if they murder a few thousand more?

He also explained how the Illuminati control all aspects of our society from the top down and that they take great pains to elevate children of their bloodline into positions of power. They are fanatically obsessed with lineage to the point of much inbreeding and I will explain the reasons for that in a bit. There are an extremely small number of them compared to the six billion of us, so they control mostly by ownership. That is they are at the topmost decision making levels of every realm of society. In that way their executive orders trickle down to exert control in areas which would otherwise be independent. For example the mainstream media is nothing more than a public relations tool for their purposes. As always, the vast majority of the people in the media have little or no idea of the big picture. They think they are covering the news, but the owners make the decisions as to what is considered news to get covered. Anything they want to stress gets major coverage. Anything they want ignored gets little or no coverage. In that way they exert a type of mind control upon the entire population of the world. If people think about what they see and hear in the media that is most definitely a type of control that the media has over the minds of the population. Out of sight, out of mind. In sight, in mind. They also control by ownership and topmost influence; banking, politics, religion, science, medicine, technology and the various militaries of the world.

He gave a quote from George Orwell which I have to paraphrase since I lost the paper upon which I wrote it down...In a society built upon countless lies, telling the truth is a revolutionary act. By the way, George Orwell's real name was Eric Blair, as in Tony Blair, current criminal prime minister of England. His book, 1984, was based upon knowledge he gained by being in contact with the evil creatures who are intent upon bringing that world into reality. It was not idle speculation which fueled his writing, but solid information obtained from inside sources.

The second part of the lecture dealt with the nature and the motives of the Illuminati. First of all, they call themselves that because they consider themselves to be the illumined ones and the rest of us to be deliberately kept in the dark. There are many organizations under the aegis of that name. Some famous ones are the Masons, the Bilderburgs, Knights Templar, and many, many others. They are illumined in the knowledge of the workings of the universe, and they strive with fanatical diligence to keep that knowledge from the rest of us. That knowledge is that our thoughts create our reality and experience. This world we experience with our five senses is only a tiny portion of the infinite vibrational spectrum. Ralph Kramden, living in The Honeymooners on channel eleven has no perception whatsoever of the characters living in Gunsmoke on channel nine. Similarly we live in the frequency which we call "Reality," but it is only one slice of an infinite pie. The Illuminati have the ability to switch between frequencies and it is their raison d'être to keep us imprisoned in this one world. In they way we can be manipulated for their pleasure and servitude.

The Illuminati are mainly reptilian in nature and conceal that from us by mostly staying in what we would call the fourth dimension or the astral plane. Just as I gave the example of the different television channels above, there are an infinite number of dimensions which we can inhabit according to our consciousness. In between dimensions there are "crevasses" or "netherworlds" and that is where the demons and devils of mythology reside. The Illuminati are those demons and devils. Every dimension of existence has an energy source. But the crevasses between them don't. That is where we come in. We are the energy source for the pleasures of the Illuminati. Just like the character in the movie, Matrix, said to the protagonist, "This is what you are," as he held up a battery. The greatest source of energy which they can draw from us is generated by the emotion of fear. Which is why they keep us as subdued, dependent and fearful as possible. Another good illustration was provided by the just released children's movie, Monsters Inc. In it, the factory in the next dimension which produces the monster consumer goods needs a constant supply of energy. That is obtained by the monsters who enter dimensional doorways into children's bedrooms. They frighten the children and bottle their screams of terror which they then take back to the factory to keep the engines running. Just a silly children's tale? It is far closer to portraying this reality than anything else which has ever come out of Hollywood!

One of the reasons the Illuminati are so obsessed with maintaining the purity of their bloodlines is because their DNA is slightly corrupted. I think some of them are pure reptilian and some are reptilian-human hybrids. Human beings with the Illuminati-corrupted DNA are more capable of interacting with the devils and demons who reside in the netherworlds between realities. Thus there is the fanatic attention given to keeping the marriages within their own families. It is essential to their otherworldly preoccupations. That is why they are so obsessed with occultism, Satanism, symbols and ritual. Even modern science recognizes that there are two levels to the human brain, the mammalian and the reptilian. The reptilian brain is most at home in the world of ritual, symbolism and cold-blooded, emotionless activity. Since the Illuminati are reptilian by nature, that is what they are most attracted to.

In the third part of the lecture, David Icke, told us how to escape from prison and how to deal with reality and the Illuminati. He said that "David Icke does not exist. David Icke is just the experience that the infinity which I am is having." Each of us is an expression of the infinite God of the universe. And each of us is having an experience which we call Edward Safranski or John Smith or Sally Jones.

The same is true of George Bush, Tony Blair and the rest of the Illuminati. But they have chosen to use their power to enslave us. One reason they are so fanatical about keeping us ignorant is because of the extreme difficulty of imprisoning an infinite being. It is like keeping a basketball on the bottom of the pool.

You have to hold it there twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. As soon as you let go, it rockets to the top of the pool and floats on the water, which is its' natural state. Similarly it is our natural state to be absolutely free and living in Paradise. To keep us in prison takes a lot of effort on the part of our jailers. The only reason they can succeed at all is because we have totally thrown away our power. That power is to cultivate within ourselves unconditional love. Not the love that I may feel for the tits and ass of a girl at Hooters, but the love that is based upon non-judgmental perception of reality.

We can totally love George Bush, and Dick Cheney and all the ruthless, bloodthirsty sadists, criminals and murderers who are the leaders of this world. We do not love their crimes, but we can love them as beings because they are also infinite expressions of the Divine Infinity that is reality.

There are four steps to that level of expressing infinite love.

One. Cease to fear what other people think of us. "What you think of me is none of my business."

Two. Cease to be a sheep, following the will of the masses. Also cease to obey and fear the attack dogs and sheepdogs who have been trained to herd us.

Three. Respect the will of others to live their lives the way they see fit. Everyone is unique. Everyone is an infinite, divine, free being who all have the right to express their divinity in any way they choose. In other words, refuse to be a sheepdog or an attack dog carrying out the will of the Illuminati by enforcing conformity.

Four. Make decisions based upon what you think is absolutely right, not based upon what you think is right for you at the moment. As an example, I've been doing that myself without even being aware of it. I've been distributing copies of the Alex Jones video, 911 - The Road To Tyranny, because I feel it is the right thing to do. In fact I was so compelled to do it that I could not stop. That is true even though I feel there is a small chance that I may be executed or imprisoned for doing so. It is a video which exposes the Illuminati. They are absolutely ruthless in their suppression of the truth. So I gave out, and still give out, copies of that video whenever and where ever I can. That is an example of what David Icke describes as the fourth step to attaining the ability to unconditional love.

When we do all that, we free ourselves. That is my perception of the lecture I attended today. What do you think?

Yours truly, Edward.
