

Bill Would Make ISPs Keep Data On Users

Wednesday, 14 February 2007

Bill Would Make ISPs Keep Data On Users

'A House Republican is pushing a measure that echoes a long-sought Bush administration goal: to require all Internet service providers to keep records on their subscribers.

The measure, introduced by Rep. Lamar Smith (R-Tex.) last week as part of the larger SAFETY Act, would give the attorney general broad discretion to write the rules on what information companies have to retain and for how long.'

Read more ...