

Toll Road Checkpoints to Deal With Dissenters

Wednesday, 14 February 2007

Toll Road Checkpoints to Deal With Dissenters

'Tony Blair's toll road surveillance and taxation grid is to be enforced by a new cadre of jackbooted inspectors who will be given powers to stop and search vehicles where owners are suspected to have removed their tracking tags. Arguing with the officials will be punishable by a 6 month prison sentence, according to a leaked government memo.'

Read more ...