Mysterious 'Ritual' Performed By United States Military Forces In Babylon

'Russian Intelligence Analysts are reporting today on a bizarre religious ritual being performed by elements of the United States Military, including some of their top leaders, in the closed Military Zone of the ancient city of Babylon in the Iraqi War Zone.

Seen by Russian satellite photos taken of the areas around Babylon, these reports state that the Americans have constructed a nearly one kilometer circle around their massive excavation of Babylon of a 'Feathered Serpent' in an apparent ritual relating to the 'ancient objects' they are about to unearth and have stationed giant US Military Cargo aircraft to bring to the United States, and which they have apparently been waiting to do on the specific date of April 16th.'
